

I am against relaxing the rules on ownership of media outlets. I believe that it will reduce the diversity of viewpoints made available to the public. The concentration of ownership in radio has been disastrous!!

There has been insufficient discussion of the ramifications of these changes. At the very least, the decision should be postponed so that a thorough investigation and discussion can be held.